

Trustee Privileges

Connect with Leaders

1. Meet interesting people and build lifelong friendships with fellow Trustees from around Florida and Washington, D.C.
2. Build pride in being a Floridian by being a champion of America's Only State Embassy in our Nation's Capital.
3. Connect with elected and business leaders in both Florida and Washington, D.C. through Florida House Trustee meetings, fundraisers, and other events.
4. Explore new facets of Washington, D.C. through unique experiences including behind-the-scenes tours of the U.S. Supreme Court, events with Ambassadors at Embassy's typically not open to the public, receiving briefings on cutting-edge technology from the NASA Administrator Bill Nelson, and talking one-on-one with members of the Florida Congressional Delegation.
5. Serve as an ambassador for Florida House within one's own community.

Celebrate at Florida House

1. Trustees who support Florida House at the $2,500 level are able to host one (1) four-hour event at Florida House for no charge (conditions apply).
 1. Trustee can also transfer their one-time House Rental to an outside group who would be charged only $500 (conditions apply).
2. Trustees who support Florida House at the $500 level (those under 40) are not eligible for this benefit.

Champion our Embassy

1. Nominate potential new Trustees (including those under 40) to join Florida House.
2. Recommend students to serve as interns at Florida House.
3. Nominate Floridians for several awards Florida House bestow: Distinguished Author, Distinguished Artist, 1845 Society, and Rhea Chiles Vision Award.